SACEDA YOUTH LEAD
2012 INTENSIVE LEADERSHIP CAMP

for Youth Leaders and Teacher Advisers

April 12-19, 2012. Dumaguete City, Philippines

January 25, 2012

To: Regional Directors
Schools Division Superintendents
Department of Education
Republic of the Philippines

Sir/ Madam:

How focused are we in determining the future of the Philippines through our investment in our youth of today? Why the youth is silently being taken away from us? When do we start protecting them to ensure a better and safer future? How can we stop the influx of distractions that will destroy our youth? What can we do?

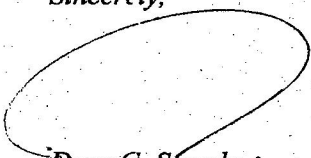

Perhaps these will be some of the questions we need to ask now for the future of the Philippines. And to answer these thought provoking questions, Saceda Youth Lead and its significant partners will hold the 2012 Intensive Leadership Camp that will bring in outstanding youth leaders and teachers. This 8-day intensive leadership training will not only hone their leadership skills, but also challenge them to take their stand for themselves, their families, their communities and for the Philippine nation.

I invite the Department of Education to take part in this journey of national resilience through our collaborative effort in youth and teacher leadership development. Our young people today need to be educated, guided, and protected so that they can fulfill their noble missions. Our teachers need to be empowered as well.

May I request full recognition of the 2012 Intensive Leadership Camp of Saceda Youth Lead to your region and divisions? Please send your student leaders and teachers to this national event in Dumaguete City, Philippines from the 12th-19th of April 2012. Teachers will earn 6 units Masters Degree in Education after full completion of the program. All participants will be eligible to attend 2 major International Leadership Programs in July and September as well.

Let us join hands in fulfilling a long time dream for the Philippines to be robust and strong again and let us start it in this convergence!

Sincerely,

Dave G. Saceda
Chair and Founder
