Your Honors:

Greetings!

The D'Creative Adventures Inc. is currently conducting the following learning activities for the School Year (SY) 2012-2013 to wit:

1. A Touch of Aura- this is an alternative musical presentation and exhibits that showcases different types of lights which are in everyday use in life and its advances. It is a fun and exciting way that thrills and brings out the creativity of all ages;
2. Kulturang Pinoy- this is an activity center that allows the young generation of today to experience the actual presentation of the Pilipino culture and values through our modern technology; and
3. Science in Motion- this is a hands-on minds-on mobile exhibit and production will provide the students to experience the thrill of being part of the scene through Dubbing and Chroma-key modules plus an array of manipulative gadgets which will help them appreciate the science principles beyond books.

The exhibit aims to provide functional, educational environment which is open to all students and will motivate the students to attend school and experience both formal and informal learning.

Anent this, may we humbly solicit your favorable endorsement to the different schools in the City of Baguio.

Thank you and more power!

Very truly yours,

for.
