Dear Sir:

Greetings!

Child and Family Service Philippines and the Saint Louis University Sunflower Children's Center are pleased to invite you, your staff and parents to the 2013 Parents' Congress. This will be held on 28 September 2013 at the 8th Floor, Decaestecker Building, SLU School of Teacher Education, Navy Base, Baguio City. Registration starts at 7:00 a.m., and the program proper will punctually begin at 8:00 a.m.

With the theme: "Keeping First What Matters Most – Love, Attachment and the Happy Child", this year's congress will cover topics on Attachment: the Root of Love and Meaningful Relationships, Preparing the Nest: Raising Happy and Healthy Children, and Attached at the Heart – Parents' Perspective in Establishing Meaningful Connections with Children. Concurrent workshops will also take place in the afternoon that will touch on the following: Teachers as Secondary Attachment Figures, the Father as Primary Attachment Figure, Working with Children and Adults with Attachment Issues, Bullying among High School Students as Influenced by Parenting and Attachment Styles, and the Cybercrime Prevention Law of 2012.

Registration fees will be collected to cover for kits, certificates, lunch and morning snacks. Each Professional and regular participant will have to pay Six Hundred Pesos only (PhP 600.00), while each student participant has to pay Four Hundred Pesos only (PhP 400.00) provided a valid school ID for the current semester / school year is presented upon registration.

You may pre-register at the SLU Sunflower Children's Center, Home Sweet Home, Governor Pack Road, Baguio City, or at CFSPI, 11 Manzanillo Subdivision, Easter School Road, Baguio City.

Thank you and I look forward to your participation to this congress. Please do not hesitate to get in touch with the undersigned through the landline number, 442-1107, for more information.

As we jointly stand for children, I remain

Sincerely yours,

MRS. BERNADETTE P. YMSON
