ANNOUNCEMENT

The Philippine Civil Service celebrates its 113th Founding Anniversary this September 2013. The month-long anniversary celebration aims to promote, showcase and celebrate heroism in public service, and to highlight stories of triumph and sacrifice among public servants as reflected in this year's theme "Tatak Lingkod Bayani: Isabuhay, Ipagmalaki at Ipagbunyi."

Part of the activities to be undertaken during the month-long celebration is a half-day visit of government employees on official time to Museums in Baguio City and Benguet to enkindle in them the value of culture and the arts and to make them more aware of the existence of Cordillera artifacts and the Philippine and Cordillera customs and traditions.
