Dear Sir,

Greetings!

On behalf of Yes-O Group of Baguio City National High School, our partner in environmental education endeavours, we would like to formally invite you to give a Message to the participants on the opening ceremony of the Exhibition "Best Practices for Environmental Sustainability", on November 25, 2013 (Monday) at 9 am at Maryknoll Ecological Sanctuary. This event promotes the culture of sharing with Baguio communities and other institutions their actual practices, mitigation and adaptation actions and alternative ways of addressing climate change and environmental sustainability.

Your presence will be highly appreciated to benchmark a series of our activities of The Climate Change Action Plan 2013 to 2014 for Baguio City.

We're hoping for your favourable response to this invitation.

Respectfully yours,

MARIA OLIVIA V. GREGORIO

RATIONALE

Climate Change Consciousness Week will be a venue to exhibit the best practices of schools, universities and organizations for the environmental action. Participating schools and organizations will have the chance to share to the whole Baguio community their best practices, mitigation and adaptation actions and alternative ways of addressing climate change and environmental sustainability. This is week of events will also address mainly the lack of information on technological adaptation and sustainable development options for addressing the impacts of climate change.

Highlights of the Climate Change Consciousness Week include the following: Photo Contest, Healthy Eating Workshop, Eco-Waste Inter-school Quiz, On-the-Spot Poster making Contest, On-the-Spot Eco-Bag Design, Awakening the Dreamer Symposium, and National Climate Change Action Plan Forum to be given by the Climate Change Commission of the Philippines.
