Subject: PINTIG AT PANTIG 7: THE MOUNTAIN COLLEGIAN LITERARY AWARDS

Attached is a letter from RHE-ANN B. NGAYAAN, Editor In-Chief, Mountain Collegian of Benguet State University inviting elementary and high school students of Baguio city and Benguet to participate in the following lectures and contests using English and Filipino as media. The activities shall be conducted at the Benguet State University on August 23, 2014.

- Essay Writing (for high school students)
- Short Story Writing (for high school students)
- Poetry Writing
- Poster Making (for Elementary pupils and high school students)
- Photography

Considering the benefits that the children can gain from the lectures and contests, this office encourages the participation of elementary pupils and high school students in the public and private nearby schools of Baguio and Benguet as this is one venue where pupils/ students can enhance and sharpen their writing skills which they can use to express their thoughts/opinions in their everyday life.

Madam:

Warmest greetings from the campus press!

In celebration of the youth's capability to recognize the beauty and responsibility of creative writing, The Mountain Collegian (MC), the official student publication of Benguet State University, will be holding its Pintig at Pantig 7 at Benguet State University, La Trinidad. The lecture and contest proper will be held on August 23, 2014 (Saturday) from 08:00 AM-06:00PM. Moreover, the awarding ceremonies will be held on September 5, 2014 (Friday) at 02:00-06:00 PM.

Pintig at Pantig 7 will be participated in by at most 5 students from each elementary, high school, and college institution from Baguio City and Benguet. Using English and Filipino as media, the event will feature lectures and contests on the following:

- Essay Writing (for high school and college only)
- Short Story Writing (for high school and college only)
- Poetry Writing
- Literary Graphics Illustration (for college only)
- Poster Making (for elementary and high school only)
- Photography

Registration is pegged at Php 100.00 00 per participant, inclusive of lunch, snacks, certificates, and kits, as well as medals and trophies for winners. Advisers of the participants will also pay the said registration fee.

In this regard, may we request for an endorsement from your good office?

MC believes that said endorsement will help in the overall success of the event, as it will be used for the invitations we will be sending later on and for communication purposes of the event.

Attached are the activity design and tentative programs of activities for your reference. For inquiries and other concerns, please contact our event chairperson at 09089196728/09159940427 (Boby Mc Gee O. Lee) or email us at themountaincollegian@gmail.com.

Thank you very much and we hope for your immediate and most favorable response.

Respectfully yours,

RHE-ANN B. NGAYAAN
Editor-in-Chief

RATIONALE

Pintig at Pantig is an annual literary awards of The Mountain Collegian, the official student publication of Benguet State University. It is a literary endeavor whose primary goal is empowering youth to be agents of positive change. It is a competition among elementary, high school, and college students. The competition includes photography, poster making (for elementary and high school students only), literary graphics (for college students only), essay writing (for high school and college students only), short story writing (for high school and college students only), and poetry writing. The winning entries from the competition are compiled and published in Kalaleng, the publication's literary folio.

Each year, Pintig at Pantig carries a theme focused on issues and matters of great significance. The theme this year would still be decided upon by the secretariat.

The Mountain Collegian, through the creation of Pintig at Pantig, has always believed in the power of the pen. It strongly advocates the principle of transcending boundaries through writing.

GOALS AND OBJECTIVES

Goal

The activity generally aims to motive students toward constructive self-expression through literary writing.

Objectives

1. To develop and enhance the literary writing and arts skills of students.
2. To express their thoughts and knowledge towards the theme of the event.
3. To gather contributions for Kalaleng.

PARTICIPANTS

The participants would be interested students, and mc staff and alumni.

ACTIVITY CONTENT

The activity will cover the following topics:
