Dear Mr. Bringas:

Greetings!

In our holistic approach to life and well-being, the Council for the Restoration of Filipino Values (CRFV) partnered with the Philippine Institute of Naturopathic Sciences (PINS) to deliver to you its first seminar on Addiction Recovery. This seminar will give the opportunity for the unveiling of new alternative health paradigm, a historic moment we won't want you and your people to miss!

An evolutionary psychologist and an international healthcare consultant, Dr. Nikki Isaacs will extensively discuss all forms of addiction even of those we may have and not aware of including shopping, computer games, coffee, internet, hoarding and more. Ultimately, she will also share easy, doable and natural ways of addiction recovery.

What more? CRFV, in its desire to bring this knowledge to strategic people who'll find the seminar expedient in their functions has committed to sponsor 75% OFF the registration fee of the first 50 participants who'll sign up for this promotion. The only condition is they bring a friend whom we will also sponsor at 50% OFF. Instead of PHP 12, 000 to 2 delegates they can both sign up at PHP 4, 500 only.

Now, check your calendars and make sure that your likely delegates are available on May 8-9, 2015 to attend the seminar at the Philippine Trade Training Center (PTTC) from 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM. You can avail of this promotion by filling up the registration form below per delegate then attach it to your reply in this thread. Please observe all instruction stated in the form for efficient processing of your registration.
