CAMPAIGN AGAINST TEENAGE PREGNANCY THROUGH JINGLE MESSAGES

To: Public Secondary School Principals
School Heads
Grade 10 Head Teacher Coordinators

1. The Health Services Office will be having a campaign through a jingle message entitled "STEP -OUT" from the trend of teenage pregnancy which would popularize the key promise that if early sex is avoided, unwanted and unintended pregnancy is prevented, happiest family relationship is expected, more gainful opportunities is assured and a promising future is secured.
2. With this endeavor, the 16 public secondary schools are invited to join the jingle making contest on November 24, 2017 at 9:00 am at the Health Services Office, Baguio City.
3. The participants are 5 students from the Grade 10 Level, hence each of the 16 schools should send 5 students to compose a group.
4. Attached is a copy of the Jingle Contest Guidelines and Mechanics for your reference.
