Memo No. 26, Series of 2018

SISTER CITIES EXCHANGE STUDENT PROGRAM

TO: Public Schools District Supervisors (Secondary)
School Heads/Principals (Junior and Senior High School)
Concerned Teachers

1. Pleased with the successful result of last year's Sister Cities Exchange Student Program, the officials of Yeonsu-gu-Metropolitan City of Incheon Korea, City of Baguio and the United Korean Community Association (UKCA) have agreed to once again implement the program this year.

2. In collaboration, DepEd Baguio is showing its support to this endeavour which is scheduled from January 15 to 19 and January 22 to 26, 2018 to be held at the Development Bank of the Philippines Training Center, Baguio City.

3. The purpose of this program is for the Korean students to learn our culture and the English language. Relative to this, there are identified teachers and applicants (kindly refer to the list) that will tutor the said students (individual and group classes) on the subject of basic English (speaking and reading) and in preparation for a culminating activity/presentation afterwards.
