MAY B. ECLAR, Ph.D., CESO V
Director, Office of the Regional Director
Cordillera Administrative Region
Department of Education

Dear RD Eclar,

As our fellow educator, we are pleased to invite you and your colleagues to join us at the Global Peace Education Summit 2018. It will be held on November 15, 2018 at Edilberto P. Dagot Hall, Philippine Normal University, Manila.

The theme of the summit, "Moral and Innovative Leadership: New Models for Education Transformation and Development," will convene international, regional and Philippine experts. The summit will explore education opportunities and address development challenges by gathering key stakeholders around universal principles and shared values in creating a prosperous and peaceful future.

Global Peace Education Summit 2018 allows participants to combine global best practices in education with community-engaged transformation in school culture, making education more relevant in today's world.

The summit, with international and local resource experts, will address the following issues:

- Nurturing Character, Creativity and Relationships in Schools
- Smart Workforce and Entrepreneurship Readiness
- Moral and Innovative Leadership Professional Development
- Practitioner Highlights (Character and Creativity Practice Sharing: Opportunities and Challenges of Creative and Collaborative Teaching)

We look forward to you and your colleagues' participation in this summit. Registration details can be accessed online, www.gg.gg/ES2018. For more information, you may inquire through Ann Marlita Arevalo (GPF Education Program Director) at amontejo@globalpeace.org or +639173238651 or +639985745441.

Together, let us learn and network with experts and fellow educators who are developing frameworks, models and exemplary practices to ensure that students gain the competencies and skills to be future-ready and future-proof.

Sincerely,

Aldrin L. Nituma
Executive Director
Global Peace Foundation Philippines
