A FIGHT TO BRING BACK EAGLE'S EYE

"If they refuse to teach you their language, then cultivate your own, and make it more widely known, keep alive our native culture for our people and, instead of aspiring to be a mere province, aspire to be a nation..."

RE: LAKAN Symposium for the Arts Month

Dear Dr Martin:

Greetings!

In search of Filipino identity comes an origin of the word that reflects the journey of "Lakan" which means warrior. The Asian concept of "Warrior" differs completely from that of the west. For the Asian, the ethos of "Scholar Warrior" (Zhan Shi in Chinese, Huawrang in Korea, Bushido in Japanese, Lakan Diwa in Filipino) reveals the heart of a warrior rooted to his past in guarding the hopes, dreams, and wonders of the young. This ancient narrative also sustains and reveals the Cordilleran Culture of 'Lumakay'.

The search for one's identity begins on the Filipino diaspora when Rizal met a handful few, who used the flow of pen and paint to raise an issue of culture, memory, and history that has been erased by western colonisation.

Thus, in celebration of Arts Month -- February, we would like to once again partner with you for to 4th time for an Art x Identity Symposium entitled "LAKAN Reorient: A Fight to Bring Back Eagle's Eye" for Grade 6 and Grade 7 of Baguio City. This will be on March 8, 2019 (Friday) 8 am - 12 pm in SM Cinema, SM Baguio City. With learning investment of Php 200.00 inclusive of meet and greet with World War II Veterans and National Folk Artist for Pottery Fidel Go. Please see the attached poster and flow of the program.

Your kind support to this endeavour is a big leap on raising our young people to reidentify with their roots as globalist Filipino and see history in a higher altitude.

Sincerely,
