Officer-in-charge
Office of the Regional Director

Dear Dr. Eclar,

Warm greetings from the University of Baguio and the University of Baguio Alumni Foundation, Inc. (UBAFI)!

The UBAFi, in cooperation with the University of Baguio, has been awarded a grant by the National Commission for the Culture and Arts (NCCA) for a series of research training on culture. This April 15, 2019, the UBAFI, in cooperation with the University of Baguio and Baguio Central University, shall be holding a one-day training for public school teachers for Baguio and Benguet on Conducting Ethnographic Research at the Baguio Central University. The aim of this training is to equip the public school teachers with the fundamental knowledge and skills in conducting cultural researches for them to appreciate a research-based indigenous education.

This training is free for 60 public school teachers who shall be recommended by your office. The UBAFI shall provide the lunch and snacks of the participants, including certificates and training materials. We ask that the DepEd shall cover the participant's transportation.

May we request that the participants shall confirm their participation to Mr. Kristian Corpuz at 09056254050 or (074) 442-3071 local 233 on or before April 10, 2019? Please expect that Mr. Corpuz will also be following up with your office regarding the dissemination of this communication.

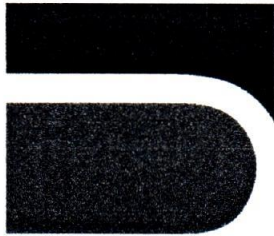

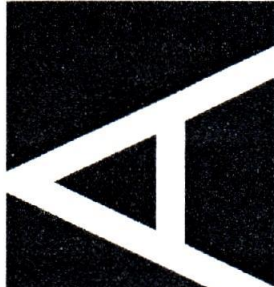

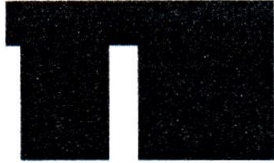

Thank you for supporting us in our endeavor to promote indigenous education through research

Truly yours,
