Dear Sir/Madam:

Greetings!

Win the top plum in the 2020 schools press conference by training with the trainers of champions.

While workshops are a dime a dozen, not all trainings are created equal. Our workshop system has been tested by the current top performing regions. The discipline and method that we share in our journalism workshops have contributed immensely in maintaining the dominance of the current schools press conference champion. And that place can be yours too if you start training with the right team early. Other regions have been catching up as well, as they continuously expose themselves to our training method.

We are able to do this by getting on board the best and the brightest media practitioners and academics in the field, most of whom have had a number of years judging and evaluating the national competitions.

Only you hold the key to make this a reality. Let us help your school paper advisers and student journalists achieve their full potential by immersing them in our workshops. Here are the details:
