Dear Sir:

Greetings!

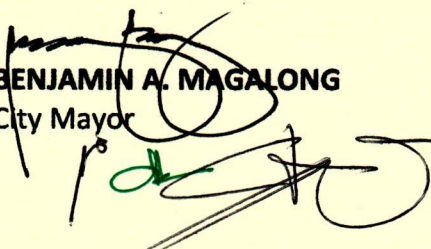

In preparation for our City's Celebration of its 110th Charter Anniversary, with the theme: "Nurturing Environment for Sustainable Development", the City Government of Baguio and likewise the private sector, take special attention on the various activities lined up for the said celebration. Likewise, all ancillary events that stimulate the participation of various sectors of the City, one in particular, is the Banner Painting Competition, which will be open to all art aficionados to take place on 24 August 2019, at the Baguio Athletic Bowl.

In this regard, may we respectfully request your most kind indulgence by assisting us in disseminating this information to the different schools in the City of Baguio, in the goal to intensify our community's participation in wholesome and worthwhile activities that highlight our City's significant history and align our youth's perspective towards proactive participation in citywide development.

Attached herewith is the detailed participation mechanics of the said Banner Painting Competition for your guidance and its appropriate posting within conspicuous areas in various schools.

For your most benevolent response, our sincerest gratitude in advance.

Very truly yours,

BENJAMIN A. MAGALONG

BANNER PAINTING COMPETITION

"Nurturing the Environment for Sustainable Development"

RATIONALE:

Congruent to our title as UNESCO's Creative City, the City's celebration of its charter anniversary shall exhibit the community's talent in the field of visual arts. This shall likewise stimulate the inspiration of our City's professional and budding artists towards cultivating further their talents to aid in the development of our various special events specially those which the City of Government of Baguio see most significant.

In lieu of our celebration the community is enjoined to express themselves through art, relative to our celebration's theme by creating banners that shall adorn the City's main road, Session Road.

MECHANICS:

This shall be open to the general public from professional artists to budding artists

Participation details:

1. The competition proper shall be on the 24th of August 2019 and shall take venue at the Baguio Athletic Bowl Bleacher Area
2. This shall be open to all individuals or groups of artists up to three(3) members on a collaborative effort to create a painted masterpiece relative to the theme of this year's Charter Anniversary Celebration.
