Dear Dir. Eclar:

The Children's Museum and Library, Inc. (CMLI) in coordination with the Department of Education (DepEd) will have its 40th Annual National Grade School Convention of the CMLI Junior Members and Teacher Advisers on September 25 - 29, 2019 at Teachers' Camp, Baguio City with the theme: "SPARK: Strengthening Proactive Advocacy on Revitalized Knowledge of Filipino Moral Values Towards a Stronger Nation".

This year's convention aims to (1) Strengthen youth awareness of the country's current issues and commit them by striving towards advocating reforms and improvement that life has to offer; (2) Prepare them to be socially conscious in sharing their time, talents and treasure by engaging them in meaningful activities; thus leaving a legacy for those around them; (3) Autograph students task with quality and be known as great innovators by acknowledging their role in the success or failure of their plans; (4) Revitalize stronger Filipino values and realize the genuine love of service to God and country being instruments of service leaving behind better than they found it to be; and (5) Keep them proactive involved in nation building, set realistic goals and struggle to fulfill their invaluable role at home, school, community and country as marginal sectors of the society.

Highlights of the convention include: SWAT (Seminar-Symposium, Write-Workshops and Talks-Talent Development) through commission discussions, group dynamic sessions, leadership training, values formation, skills enhancement and keynote speeches of motivational speakers to prepare them become productive, proactive and principled student leaders of the country.

Underscoring the five-day convention are the cultural presentations showcasing individual and collective talents in the following multiple intelligence competitions:
