Dear Madam:

Christian greetings!

University of Saint Louis, a CICM Catholic Institution of Higher Learning in Tuguegarao City, Cagayan, through its Center for Social Innovation, Local Knowledge, and Educational Research (CSILKER) and University Research and Development Center (URDC) will be conducting the 2nd International Research Conference on Local Knowledge and Indigenous Studies with the theme, "Local Knowledge and the Fourth Industrial Revolution" on January 29-31, 2020 at the Bulwagang Teodulfo Domingo, University of Saint Louis, Tuguegarao City, Cagayan, Philippines.

The said research conference aims to gather scholars and Higher Education and Basic Education teachers who are interested in doing local knowledge and indigenous studies and researches. Specifically, it aims to:

- a. update the participants on the status of indigenous education and cultural studies in the Philippines in the realm of the Fourth Industrial Revolution;
- b. provide opportunities for teachers and local knowledge enthusiasts to share their studies and researches on local knowledge and indigenous studies in a scholarly environment;
- c. provide an avenue for the participants to explore and discover the richness of the Cagayano culture and traditions;
- d. Understand better the role of local knowledge and indigenous studies in the advent of Fourth Industrial Revolution;
- e. provide participants a thorough discussion on the different processes and methodologies in doing researches involving indigenous peoples and cultural communities; and
- f. build a strong partnership and linkages among institutions, scholars and local knowledge enthusiasts in the Philippine and in the world in the promotion of local knowledge and indigenous studies as an important tool in achieving sustainable development goals.

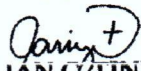

The expected participants of the said conference are the basic education and higher education teachers and undergraduate and graduate students both from the public and private schools in the Philippines. A minimal fee of four thousand pesos (PhP 4,000.00) will be collected from the local participants and One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) for foreign participants which will cover 2 lunch, 5 snacks, 1 dinner, seminar kits, certificate of participation, certificate of recognition as oral presenters, honorarium of the keynote speaker and trainers, venue rentals, and other expenses. Selected papers will also be published in our peer reviewed journal on local knowledge, Bannag: A Journal of Local Knowledge.

planning & research,
what do you recommend?
