DIOSDADO M. SAN ANTONIO
Director IV
OIC-Undersecretary for Curriculum and Instruction

MESSAGE

My warmest greetings to the officials and staff of Philippine Continuing Professional Development Inc. in cooperation with the Philippine Organization of TLE and TVL Educators Inc. for hosting the First National Convention of TLE and TVL Educators.

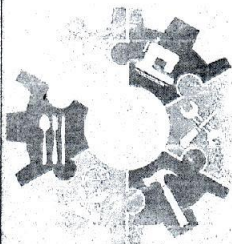

The discussion about the future gravitates towards the term 'Industry 4.0.' Experts believe that the rapid changes and innovations brought about by technology will fundamentally change the workplace, industry and education system – necessitating future workforce to obtain 21st century skills. The direction has already been set. Henceforth, as educators, we play a significant role in capacitating our learners with sufficient skills and competencies that will enable them to survive and thrive in the digital economy.

This year's convention, with the theme, "TLE and TVL Educators: Forging a Path Towards Inclusive 21st Century Education and Livelihood," gives emphasis on how TLE and TVL educators are crucial variables in cementing an inclusive and 21st Century Education for all of our learners. As the ones in the frontlines, we should primarily embrace the change as we leverage what technology has to offer. Industrialization gives us the power to create an environment that will foster growth and belongingness across all types of learners with multiple needs. By aligning the technical skills that we teach to our learners to what the industries demand, we prepare them to become job-ready – one with vast employable skills. Supplement that with soft skills and you now have a dynamic and flexible learner who has limitless potential to become a great leader of the next generation. This will require maximum efforts from the teachers as they also have to be creative and innovative in their instruction that will capture the attention of their learners – the Generation Z.

At DepEd, we acknowledge the importance of inculcating among our learners the 21st century skills for lifelong learning. We recognize the role of our educators in steering the discourse towards the right path. This convention is a great opportunity to intensify dialogues on ways forward by gathering educators and developing proactive pedagogies they can use in their profession – bringing about lifetime benefits for the learners.

As the landscape of education continues to evolve, we carry the responsibility to ensure that our learners and teachers are able to surf with the changes – thereby securing our future by investing in human capital and technical skills.

TLE and TVL Educators: Forging a Path Towards Inclusive 21st Century Education and Livelihood

Developing Proactive and Skilled 21st Century Filipino Professionals

Company Profile

Developing Proactive and Skilled 21st Century Filipino Professionals

As the implementation of the K-12 program went into full swing, the demand for TLE and TVL educators rose. This enormous demand allowed the entry of professionals from different technical and vocational fields. Though experts, they continue to seek further enrichment through trainings and workshops which are hard to find especially those that would focus on TLE and TVL. It was on June of 2019 that the Philippine Continuing Professional Development Training Center Inc. launched its series of training programs designed for TLE and TVL educators which eventually led to organizing TLE and TVL educators into a legitimate organization known as Philippine Organization of TLE and TVL Educators Inc. (POTTE Inc.) on August 30, 2019 at Max Restaurant, SM North, Quezon City attended by teachers from Bulacan, Pampanga, Rizal and Pangasinan.

Currently, POTTE Inc. is on the process of registration and is expecting that the Certificate of Incorporation will be released on the month of October 2019.

Vision

A dynamic professional organization that will ensure the technical development of TLE and TVL Educators as they respond to the opportunities and challenges of 21st century education.

Mission

To hone 21st Century Educators to become proactive and responsive to the demands of technical education and to provide a forum for TLE and TVL Educators towards professional, skills and research development.

Core Values

Professionalism,
Integrity,
Dynamism and Excellence
