PUBLIC ROAD ADVISORY

Issued: November 26, 2019, 8:00 AM

1) REFERENCE:

- a. Agreements during the Coordination Meeting of the Inter-Agency Task Group Kennon held on 22 November 2019 at Conference Room, CRDRRMC EOC, OCD-CAR, Baguio City.
- 2) As part of the agreements of the Inter-Agency Task Group Kennon, Kennon Road will be opened every Friday (6:00 AM) to Monday (6:00 PM) of every week to ease the heavy traffic along Marcos Highway and Tubao-Asin-Nangalisan Road due to the influx of tourists going to Baguio City especially during weekend. This opening will start on 29 November 2019 onwards until further notice;
- 3) The window time is open only at one-way upward direction (going up to Baguio City) and for light vehicles weighing five (5) tons and below. Vehicles/motorists shall remain on the right (upward) lane as there are residential vehicles that are using the downward lane;
- 4) Vehicles/motorists that will traverse the road are also advised to observe the speed limit of twenty kilometers per hour (20kph), traffic and parking rules, especially when going for stopover at the Lion's Head;
- 5) As Kennon Road will only be open on one lane upward direction, Baguio tourists/visitors who want to have a photo opportunity at the Lion's Head shall get clearance first from the checkpoint at Camp 8 view deck, as they will only be allowed to pass through upon surrendering a valid government issued ID or their driver's license and return to retrieve it after their visit;
- 6) In case of inclement weather and/or sudden occurrence of localized thunderstorm where landslide is imminent in the area, Kennon Road will be immediately closed upon the recommendation of DPWH-CAR, LGU Tuba, and MPS-Tuba; and
- 7) For widest dissemination and strict compliance.
