Gearing towards the new normal, GSP has adopted strategies in delivering its programs and making it more R.E.A.L - Relevant, Exciting, Accessible, and Learner Led.

This is the best time for our Council Girl Leaders to take the lead in the celebration. Each Girl Scout Council has a set of Girl Leaders' Team who attended the National Girl Leaders' Training for Managing Creative

Teams on July 19, 2020 and National Girl Leaders' Training: Delivering Girl-Led Programs in the New Normal on July 25, 2020 where they were expected to plan, organize, and deliver online Girl Scout Week activities in close coordination with their adult leaders/advisers, and Council Executives and Staff. They will deliver the online activities using their Council's official Facebook page.

Series of 2020

On the other hand, the Josefa Llanes Escoda (JLE) E-Conference Series will be conducted online during weekends for the whole month of September. This aims to enable each Juliette Low Scholar (JLS) 2019 delegate to reach out and share their learning to one hundred (100) or more Girl Scouts aged 12 years old and above to empower them to become good leaders as their commitment of action to the World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts (WAGGGS) as JLS 2019 grantees. Hence, the target number of scholars is eight hundred (800) Senior and Cadet Girl Scouts per webinar session.

The following Girl Scout participants for this conference are expected to complete the seven (7) webinar sessions during weekends for the whole month of September to be awarded e-Certificate of Participants at the end of the webinar.

Council will select 8 active Senior/Cadet girl Scouts to represent the Council.

JLE E-CONFERENCE SERIES

The GSP JLS 2019 scholars will facilitate each webinar that will focus on the following WAGGGS's leadership mindset. Other details of this JLE e-Conference series will be sent in a separate circular.
