AMAZING DAY !Trainstation is pleased to offer our online 2021 LEARNING AND DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMS.*DATE: FEB 24, MARCH 10 AND MARCH 24*TIME: 9:30 – 11:30*VENUE: VIA ZOOM*PROGRAM FEE: 3,500*Performing in the New Normal

We are facing a new norm because of the pandemic.

We have new ways of doing things and it has caused uncertainty and anxiety for many people. Whether it is adapting to new technology or working virtually, we need to make sure that we are equipped to perform in the new norm. People feel ill-equipped and disconnected. There are still many uncertainties up ahead and want to Empower, enable and equip people on a mindset shift to be able to adapt. This program focuses on empowering the individual because a disempowered, unmotivated and overwhelmed person will have difficulty in pivoting. This program will instill grit and resilience to bounce back and bounce forward through NLP, neuroscience and positive psychology.

DATE : MARCH 16-19TIME : 9:30 -11:30*VENUE: VIA ZOOM*PROGRAM FEE: 4,800*360 Degree Leadership

Leadership has many dimensions, and not all leaders are aware of all of them. Some leaders focus on just the role that's been given to them. Others just focus on being liked. Others just look at results, never mind the people they manage. Leadership is recognizing all dimensions, and knowing how to fulfill all of them.

Managing Virtual Teams

So does this mean Virtual Teams are "Almost a team"? Does being a Virtual Leader mean being an "Almost a leader"?

Quite the opposite. Virtual Leadership actually means an active, purposeful effort to be a leader. Putting in the extra effort because we don't have the usual things we take for granted, such as being in the same space, or seeing the people you have the responsibility of leading everyday.
