26 February 2021

Dr. Marie Carolyn B. Verano
Schools Division Superintendent
Baguio City

Dear Dr. Verano:

Aloha!

The University of Hawai'i at Hilo and the University of Santo Tomas, through the Department of Filipino of the College of Education, will hold the 1st International Virtual Conference on the Teaching of Filipino as a Second Language (IVCTFSL 2021) on 17-19 June 2021 via Zoom.

The said event aims at discussing the current trends, issues and challenges in the Teaching of Filipino as a Second Language (TFSL) to Filipino and non-Filipino students; setting the agenda for TFSL that will serve as bases for policies, researchers, and praxes; and building a network of academics, teachers, scholars, linguists, advocates, officials, policymakers, and other stakeholders who will advance the field of TFSL here and abroad.

In line with this, may we respectfully request for your endorsement of the said event to the schools under your division?

Attached herewith are the posters for the call for papers and the tentative program. To register, kindly visit the following link:
