Objectives:

- To recognize the important role of Troop Leaders and adult members in the delivery of the GSP program and in the Council operations.
- To showcase the giftedness of the Troop Leaders and other GSP adult members.

Mechanics:

1. Each Council is encouraged to participate in the activity called "Hataw Na" – A Tribute to GSP Leaders by organizing a group of minimum of 5 and maximum of 10 adult members (preferably a group of Troop Leaders, Council Board Members, Barangay Committee Members or District Committee Members, or members of any GSP Committee) to present their giftedness via a recorded video. Strictly, only 1 group presentation per Council.

2. The group presentation could be in the form of any of the following with element of Girl Scouting:

- a. Dance
- b. Song with Choreography
- c. Role Play
- d. Short Film
- e. Choral Recitation
- f. Instrument Showcase

Attire may be GSP uniform, GSP fun t-shirt or any appropriate costume.

3. The group presentation recorded video should last within 3-5 minutes only, not more than 500 MB and must follow the file name format: Name of Group - Name of Council (example: Talentadong TLs - Baguio Council).

It must be submitted to the Training Division-National Headquarters on or before October 10, 2022 (Monday) via the Google Link that will be provided. <https://tinyurl.com/Hataw-Na-Tribute-to-Leaders>

4. The National Training Committee will pre-judge the submitted recorded videos and select 13 best group presentations which will be subjected to the final judging of the following invited members of the Board of Judges:

- ✓ Dr. Cristina Lim-Yuson - National President
- ✓ Mrs. Olivia Celeste M. Villafuerte
- ✓ National Secretary and National Equipment Service (NES) Chairperson
- ✓ Ms. Czieloh Jomea C. Villajin (Chair) - International Affairs Committee
- ✓ Vice Chairperson and National Training Committee Member

The decision of the Board of Judges is final.

5. The criteria for the selection of best group presentations are:

a. Relevance to Girl Scouting	20%
b. Creativity	20%
c. Originality	20%
d. Coordination	20%
e. Stage Presence	20%
