We have only one world to live, in order for us to become aware what is happening we need to be informed that excess buying and using materials, technologies which we don’t really need affects our environment and our World we live today. We need to how we can help reduce, re-use and recycle properly the things we have starting to our home by the following suggested activity we can do:

1. We need to inform our family members not to buy foods with wrappers that is harmful to the environment;
2. Re-use packages to buy our food at the market or anywhere;
3. Don’t buy things that can be used only for our convenient, but it is harmful to the environment. Find other ways that is a win-win situation.
4. Be creative and content to what we have.
5. Bring the things that you no longer need that can still be used by others on Saturday, March 25, 2023.

How wonderful to think to live in a “Peaceful Future”. Everyone respects everybody, nobody is poor or wealthy, everybody help each other to grow, may it be a creature on land or at sea, plants and people. We explore topics of stewardship, harmony, and the role the environment plays in peace and security by the following suggested activities:

1. Respect everybody's religion, belief, opinion and tradition that is not against God.
2. Know your rights.
3. Know and understand each other's feeling and opinion.

This year's theme is a continuation of the three-year journey for Girl Guides and Girl Scouts to become environmentally conscious leaders which came from a survey during the International Day of the Girl 2020 wherein the World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts (WAGGGS) asked Girl Guides and Girl Scouts under 18 from 100 countries what issues they were most concerned about and what they wanted to change about the world. From this data, it was learned that the number one worry is the environment.

Around the City, we must explore methods of stewardship and consideration of both the natural world and our fellow human beings. These different aspects of a peaceful environment can help us all achieve a world with a peaceful future.

The activity pack send by the WAGGGS will be continued to the activities on March 25, 2023 to let the girls be able to earn more additional badge that they earned during the WAGGGS BADGE: SAFE & PROUD AND BASIC PREPAREDNESS & AWARENESS activities.

All the activities given to all the age level activities are free and fun to do. In keeping also our girls safe and enjoy the continuing activities this coming Saturday, March 25. We are happy to let their registered parents accompany their daughters and be part of their activities, if they would like to. In that case our girls and their parents will also be given a chance/time to bonding in accomplishing the GSP activities with their supportive parents.

Attached is their Application Form, COVID 19 Health Declaration and Parents Consent for age level.

In this regard, we encourage Girl Scout members from all the schools to participate in this activity to let our girls enjoy the different activities and earn the Eight Point Challenge badges and special badge from the WAGGGS.

We look forward to your active participation in the continuing WAGGGS BADGE ACTIVITIES.
