ADVISORY NO. 003, 2025

January 9, 2025

In compliance with DepEd Order No. 8, s. 2013
this advisory is issued not for endorsement per DO 28, s. 2001 but only for the information of DepEd Officials, personnel, staff, as well as the concerned public. (visit www.deped.gov.ph)

The United School Marketers and Admissions of the Philippines (USMA-PH) is reaching out to propose a career orientation session to interested schools. The objective of this orientation is to provide students with valuable insights into the educational opportunities available at their respective colleges and universities. Their agenda includes:

1. Introduction of member institutions and the wide array of courses they offer.
2. Details about scholarships opportunities available for prospective students.
3. Announcements and invitations to upcoming events and activities hosted by member institutions.

Further, they are willing to provide qualified speakers for seminar on leadership and other topics.

Enclosed are the details of USMA-PH letter for your reference and information. Participation and expenses on the said activity is personal and voluntary and shall be subjected to the "no-disruption-of classes" policy stipulated in DepEd Order No. 9, s. 2005, titled "Instituting Measures to Increase Engaged Time-On-Task and Ensuring Compliance Therewith".

Dr. Soraya T. Faculo
Schools Division Superintendent
Baguio City

Greetings from United School Marketers and Admissions of the Philippines (USMA-PH)!

We are a collective of diverse colleges and universities brought together by the strong bonds of friendship among our school representatives. As advocates for education and career advancement, we recognize the vital role that career orientation plays in guiding students towards informed decisions about their future academic pursuits after senior high school.

In line with this mission, we are reaching out to propose a career orientation session at your esteemed institution. The objective of this orientation is to provide students with valuable insights into the educational opportunities available at our respective colleges and universities. Our proposed agenda includes:

1. Introduction of our member institutions and the wide array of courses they offer.
2. Details about scholarship opportunities available for prospective students.
3. Announcements and invitations to upcoming events and activities hosted by our member institutions.

The format of the career orientation can be tailored to suit your preferences and logistical considerations, whether it be in the form of room-to-room presentations, assembly-style gatherings, a fair setup, or any other format of your choice.

Below is a list of colleges and universities affiliated with USMA-PH officially. Please note that the participating schools may vary based on location and availability:
