Schools Division Superintendent

Greetings;

We would like to introduce to you the TWINSTAR EDUCATIONAL MATERIALS a non-stock profit organization establish through the effort of various individuals for the purpose of developing and promoting good reading materials and psychomotor or brain storming materials for children. Initially, we have produced and developed story books materials and we could also support the Implementation of ARAL program or reading intervention program.

In this connection, we like to request from your good office to allow us to demonstrate these materials in the different public and private schools and will give these copies to every school's library in this division.

Your favorable actions in this will be honor for us and big help to our organizations to continue producing worthy educational materials for children.

Thank you very much and God bless.

Very truly yours,

RANDY BALTIISTA
