Gallery Walk Defense

1. Purpose:
The Gallery Walk provides an interactive way for groups to present and defend their projects while allowing evaluators to assess understanding, clarity, and critical thinking. It encourages active engagement, collaboration, and concise communication.

2. Procedure:
   1. Project Display:
      - Each group displays their project on a tarpaulin with a stand in a designated area. (size 1.5 x 3)
   2. Panel Walkthrough:
      - A panel of evaluators, including PSDSs, and other assigned assessors, walks around to each project.
   3. Question and Clarification:
      - Evaluators ask questions, seek clarifications, and discuss aspects of the project with the group.
      - Group members respond and defend their work professionally and confidently.
   4. Assessment and Rating:
      - While interacting with the group, evaluators rate their performance based on predefined criteria, such as:
      - Clarity of presentation
        - Depth of understanding
        - Ability to answer questions
        - Team collaboration and communication skills
